GRANTS

Ongoing Research Support

NIH/NCI P50-CA180907 Ribisl (PI) 2013-2019

Center for Regulatory Research on Tobacco Communication

Effective Communication on Tobacco Product Risk and FDA Authority

The goal of the Center is to use communication science to improve messages about cigarette smoke constituents, emerging tobacco products, and the FDA's regulatory authority over tobacco products. The Center will conduct three integrated research projects among vulnerable populations and across the lifespan to inform regulatory science.

Role: Postdoctoral Research Fellow

NIH/NIDA U54 DA031659 (Donny & Hatsukami, Co-PIs) 2017-2022

Evaluating New Nicotine Standards for Cigarettes

The overarching aims of this center are 1) to determine the impact of very low nicotine content cigarettes on smoking, abstinence, use of non-combusted tobacco products, and toxicant exposure; 2) To determine the subjective effects of very low nicotine content cigarettes and products that may function as alternatives to smoking; 3) To assess the impact of individual-level variables that may moderate these effects.

Role: Project 2 Postdoctoral Research Fellow

NCI R03CA206487 (Cornacchione, PI) 2016-2019

Comparing Graphic to Text-Only Warnings to Discourage Cigarillo Smoking by Young Adults

The goal of this project is to test the relative effectiveness of text-only vs. graphic cigarillo warning labels to discourage young adult cigarillo users and susceptible nonusers from smoking cigarillos.

Role: Research Staff

Completed Research Support

No Number King (PI) 2017-2018

Optimizing Warnings on E-Cigarette Advertisements

Pilot Awarded under P50CA180907 (Ribisl, PI), National Cancer Institute

The goal of this pilot study is to develop e-cigarette advertisement warnings to capture attention and increase warning recall.

Role: Principal Investigator

HRSA 1UB6HP22825-01 Hart (PI) 2011-2015

Rural South Public Health Training Center

The Center served medically underserved counties in Florida, particularly in northern rural regions of the state, by providing competency-based training for public health workers, enhancing public health services, and improving community access to services. The center focused on public health core skills and the skills required to address prevention and management of HIV/AIDS in the rural South.

Role: Research Coordinator

NIH/NCI R21-CA141600 Pomeranz (PI) 2009-2012

Creating a Tobacco Cessation Program for People with Disabilities: a CBPR Approach

The goal of the grant was to use Community-Based Participatory Research (CBPR) to develop and test a tobacco cessation group treatment program for people with disabilities.

Role: Research Coordinator
